(6). TITLE:- HIS JOURNEY'S END.

Naturally, they were all very eager to welcome the Royal visitors.

The Prince of Wales, in lounge suit and straw hat, seems 'quite at home', and puts everybody at their ease, right away. ... It's a way he has! ... And very much appreciated it is, too! ...

Shortly after his arrival His Royal Highness calls on the President. ... Now in naval uniform, --

--he acknowledges the plaudits of the people, --

--as he drives through the crowded streets to the Government Palace. ... Apart from just this --

--visit to the "First Citizen of the Argentine", informality has been the keynote of the Prince's tour. ...

Without a doubt, the visit of the Royal Brothers assured the success of the vast Exhibition, which is the greatest commercial challenge issued by Britain to the world in general, for many a long day. ... Here's to its continued success!
