TITLE:- HIS MAJESTY.

Picture:- Preceded by a Captain's escort of the Royal Horse Guards, His Majesty --

--drives to St. James's Palace. ... Sorry our cameraman couldn't push his way through the guards, for a better view.

... That's the King's coach just turning into the Palace grounds, --

--and here are the Guards who obscured our view just now.

The Church and the Diplomatic Corps are represented at the Leves.

Scotland is there too - well represented by Colonel Smith. ...

British justice is also honoured by the King. ...

After some six hundred presentations, His Majesty departs. ... We're glad to be able to give you a better sight of our beloved monarch than we were able to as he drove to St. James's. ... Here's health unto His Majesty !
