

(9). TITLE.:- THE PRINCERS' TOUR.

Picture.:- Big crowds give Their Royal Highnesses a warm reception --

--when they arrive at the arena. ... They --

--are accompanied by the President, and members of the Cabinet... The Argentine is doing its best to give the visitors a real--

--good time - and it looks as though success is attending the effort.

The Princes are in very good company as they view from the balcony a display --

--of physical jerks by well drilled native athletes.

How much good the Princes' tour has done for Britain, cannot be estimated, but it --

--is certain that millions of pounds worth of trade will find its way here --

--in consequence. ... Well British ~~factories~~ are ready and waiting.

The Prince of Wales looks particularly pleased about something. ... I wish I could tell you what it is, but I don't know - so that's that !

The Prince sprang a surprise on the natives by wearing the guards' uniform at the cadet review. ... Everybody thought they knew his wardrobe --

--from A to Z, for the reports have worked overtime on his visit.

But this was a new one to the people of the Argentine.

The cadets rather welcome the order "Eyes Right" - it gives them a chance of a good look !
