

(5). TITLE.:- GIRL'S CHANNEL DASH.

Picture.:- In company with Mr. Cole, she's going across the English Channel without paying her fare !

She's got plenty of faith in her little four --

--horse-power motor dinghy. So has her mother, apparently.

The boat is only thirteen-feet long. Not much of a vessel to battle with the Channel waters, if they should happen to be in angry mood, (as I've known them to be !).

Away they go - First stop, Margate !

Then Dover, and ho ! , for La Belle France. Later news ! She got across quite safely - thank you !
