TITLE.:- MID LENT CARNIVAL.

Picture.:- Mademoiselle Claire is Queen of the Carnival. ...
Every year all good Parisians --

--combine to make this Mi-Careme Festival an event of joy, colour and romance.

It's a shame she's only queen for a year. How-do-you-do!
A happy reign, Mademoiselle !

Headed by troops of the Republican Guard, the carnival procession wends its way through the Rue de Rivoli.

Cars and chariots represent all sorts and conditions of things in the life of Paris.

This globe-like affair indicates their pride in the famous transatlantic flight of Costes and Bellonte, last year.

The postponement of the carnival gave the revellers the benefit of to-day's sun --

--which had taken "a day off" on the date it was originally--

--to have been held. Here's the Queen's chariot -
I'll bet there's a King not so very far off !
