TITLE:- ROYALTY AT PLAY.

Picture:- King Gustave enjoys a game of tennis.
With the help of Cochet he makes a good show.

I doubt if you've ever before seen a King playing tennis.

Nor has the versatile Cochet had the experience of being in attendance on a King before !

His Majesty is so utterly democratic that he is -- --quite "taken for granted" by everybody, during his short visit to Paris. In a few days --

--he will take leave of the gay city, when his attention will -- --be taken up by more serious rackets at a very different kind of court.
