TITLE.:- LAND OF MAPLE LEAF.

Picture.:- Halifax greets the new Governor-General of Canada with military honours.

Lord Bessborough's first duty in the Nova Scotian capital, takes him to Province House - there to take the oath, --

--in the customary manner, within the historic Council Chamber.

His Excellency then signs the Oath Book and receives the Great Seal of Canada.

Later, at Ottawa, capital of the Dominion, the Earl of Bessborough, and his Countess, are accorded a further warm welcome by the populace of the city, when they arrive to take up residence at Government House.

The vice-Regal family look over the grounds of their new home, --

--and Their Excellencies look to be perfectly happy about it all !
