(6). TITLE.:- TERRITORIAL SUNDAY.

Picture.:- It's an impressive sight, all these troops drawn up in Albert Square, to take part in -- --the annual open-air service for Territorials of the Division. As is usual on such occasions hardly a man is absent, for they take their duties very seriously in this part of the country. Thousands of the public are attracted to the service, which is conducted by the Bishop of Manchester, who is supported, on the -- --platform by the Mayors of several Lancashire towns, and many distinguished citizens of Manchester itself.

Everyone is delighted - I won't say surprised - that the weather is kind.

Good for Manchester ! Good for Britain ! and good for the Empire !
