TITLE.:- LAST OF BENBOW.

Picture.:- Her day is done. . . . . She is one of the four battleships to be --

--scrapped by Britain under the Five-Power --

--Agreement for the limitation of naval armament. . . . .
Benbow covered herself with glory in the Battle of Jutland - she was responsible for sinking one of the enemy --

--men-o'-war. . . . . But her great guns have spoken for the last time. . . . . No more will they tell the world - (in a very loud voice) --

--what the navy has been telling it ever since the days of Drake ! . . . . . Benbow was built in -- --1914, and cost two-million pounds. . . . . Now she's worth only sixty-thousand - as scrap metal.

This will be sold on the markets of the world - so there's no telling --

--how she'll turn up - or where. . . . . Benbow bed-springs , or gardening tools, should be pretty good.
