

(1). TITLE:- ABERDONIANS PAY UP :

Picture. :- Somebody said that the youth of to-day is lacking in courage. .... One man went so far as to wager fifty-pounds that no student was plucky enough to negotiate the Dee on a log raft. .... He was wrong, for Francis Harper does it, --

--and collects the money. .... Thus is the youth of to-day vindicated. .... This is only an incident in the -- --massed attack by students, on the pockets of the people of Aberdeen. .... They found all the spare threepenny-bits there were, too ! .....

Nothing was sacred from the raiders. .... They even kidnaped the Lord Provost, and put him up for auction !

He "fetched" thirty-pounds ! .... I don't know if weight had anything --

--to do with it ! .... Anyhow thirty-pounds is a lot of money - but maybe the purchaser got a bargain !

The students got what they wanted for the local hospitals - that's the main thing !
