(1). TITLE.:- ARCHERS V. GOLFERS.

Picture.:- You'd rub your eyes if you came across this kind of thing on your favourite golf links. ....

It's alright though, golfers haven't given up the ghost.

You can tell that by their plus fours ! ..... Even the archers wear 'em ! ..... Good shot, sir !

The golfers play the game in the ordinary way - language included - and their opponents --

--have to pierce a ball of twine - Splendid ! - by way of holing-out !

What is "golf" for "tut, tut" ! ? That's better ! It's a --

--good game for ladies too ! It jolly well should be, for they darn well, and are expected --

--to know more about teas and caddies than we mere men. ....

Hm ! bad luck ! Needle threadings easier !!

It's up to this lady ! Good putt ! Down ! So if you --

--want a change from ordinary golf - strike a match of this sort !
