TITLE.:- MODES AND MOTORS.

Picture.:- Gowns for Ascot ! I shouldn't be surprised if I take a little more interest in race-meetings this year !

Evening wear, too(!), is so charming that late nights appear to be indicated !

And jewels ! Well this young lady is wearing £100,000 worth. Now you Irish Sweepstake ticket-holders, here's your chance !

Perhaps this might interest some of you more, if fortune smiled - or rather laughed, on you !

Cocktail Suits are the latest novelty. They are part of a ~~general~~ ensemble which includes a chic sun-bathing and beach suit. They should meet with general approval.

All gowns are given a name nowadays. These two are "Stream-line" and "Elegance", --

--while this is "Silent Power" - because it is irresistible, I suppose !
