(4). TITLE.:- BE PREPARED.

Picture.:- They are assembled in the courtyard of Somerset House - the place that gives all we tax-payers the cold shivers. They are there --

--for the presentation of the Association Colour to the St. Gabriels Cricklewood troop by Mr. Hubert Martin, Scout Commissioner for the Diocese of London.

They have been adjudged best all-round troop of the year.

Presentations of shields and certificates for Ambulance Work, Physical Training, Boxing, Football, etcetera, follow.... The applause which -- --follows shows how little jealousy there is amongst them.

Nearly four thousand boys are here to do honour to those who have won honours. Their attitude is, generally, "Jolly good luck to them !"

Finally Mr. Martin bestows upon Mr. H.J.D. Talling, Secretary of the London Association, the Scout Order of the Silver Wolf.

And how these youngsters cheer ! It's easy to see--- that they mean it ! Now you know where the expression "Good Scout" comes from !
