

2 15830-1

(1).

TITLE:- FURRY DANCE.

Picture:- Down Helston way they are luckier than most people, for Furry Day --

--gives them an additional excuse to bring out their silk hats. Many of us only bring them out for funerals and weddings ! In all their splendour, matched only by -- --the gay garb of the ladies, they trip the "light fantastic" through the quaint old streets.

Don't ask me why, except that it's an old Cornish custom.

Something pleasant to do on a slack afternoon, I suppose. I've often wondered where "top hats" go to when they die ! Perhaps they are collected for this !