TITLE.:- EQUESTRIANISM.

Picture.:- Military officers of many nations take part in the various contests in the beautiful Piazza di Siena of the former Villa Borghese. .... The distinguished onlookers include --

--His Majesty King Victor Emmanuel of Italy, who has always been keenly interested in --

--anything to do with horses and horsemanship. .... He sees some of the -- --world's cleverest riders "taking" the obstacles with the admirable ease so typical of --

--these Continental military equestrians. ....

The two sons of Signor Mussolini - Vittorio and Bruno --

--are also interested followers of the contests. .... They'll be "touching" Dad --

--for a couple of "gee-gees" before they're much older, I'll be bound.

Another visitor - and one who appears to --

--be fairly pleased with himself, is the ex-Crown Prince of Germany. .... He's quite a good horseman.

The Italian officers are very successful in the jumping--
--contests. I wonder what they'll do for sport when cavalry is mounted on motor bikes !
