TITLE:- BRITISH GAMES.

Picture:- The proceedings open with a march past of some of the finest athletes in the world. .... No wonder the -- --thirty-thousand people assembled at Stamford Bridge, eagerly anticipated the contests on the program. .... Britain, France, Germany, - all are represented here, not to mention the famous runner Paavo Nurmi, affectionately known as the "Flying Finn".

The High Jump !- Over - a Very good effort !

Another ! - Up ! - Ha ! Not so good !

The Four Miles Invitation Record Race was looked upon as a cert --

--for Nurmi. .... What a wonderful style the man has !..... It's not surprising that they put him at "scratch". ....He had to concede 240 yards to --

--J.W. Winfield, a fine runner from Derby. .... He puts up a splendid exhibition, never giving Nurmi a chance to -- --get back that 'start'. .... So it was --

--Winfield won, with Gretton and Peany, second and third respectively. ....

When one mentions Burdles, Lord Burghley's name comes uppermost in the mind ! .... He's nearest the camera, living up to his reputation, splendidly ! .... As sure-footed as can be ! ....

Keep going, Burghley ! .... Lovely ! .... A dash - he's there !

Well done, sir ! .... A very fine victory ! ....

The big crowd got its money's worth, and Britain kept her end up !
