TITLE.:- RELIGIOUS PROCESSION.

Picture.:- For the youngsters of Manchester, this is one of the best days of the year. They get new frocks and suits, --

--and take part in the hundred and thirtieth annual procession through the streets of the city.

Sunshine favoured them during their walk. (It's alright you didn't misunderstand me, I said it was Manchester).

Elders carry the "Priceless Jewels" of Knowledge - followed by the little Gleaners of that Knowledge. How proud --

--are the tiny toms to find themselves the centre of so vast an admiring crowd - all dressed up in new clothes too ! Even the boys behave like - um, er, - well, like good little girls to-day !
