TITLE:- HIGH UP IN THE WORLD.

Picture:- When this fellow started on his journey up here, --

--the insurance people were already dipping their pens in --

--the ink in anticipation of having to sign cheques --

--in favour of the "executors of John Moore.". .... They needn't have worried, for the chances of a mere --

--nine-hundred-foot drop do not worry him in the slightest !.....
He says he's sure he wouldn't feel the bump, anyway ! (Perhaps he's right !). .... Just to show how little he thinks of the risks he runs, he decides to go a little higher still ! .....

Only another dozen feet or so, to go ! ..... I wouldn't have his job for a pension ! ..... I wonder what he'd do if the dinner hooter went now ! ..... Brrh ! it gives me the cold shivers all down my spine ! ..... Well, if that doesn't "cap" everything !
