TITLE.:- POLY MARATHON.

Picture.:- Sixty-nine fast young men of many nationalities assemble in Windsor Great Park for -- --the big marathon race to London. They all get off the mark in good style, with twenty-six miles of hard roads ahead of them. The runners all took --

--it easily in the earlier stages - a very wise precaution when on such a long trail. As they pass Windsor Castle --

--they begin to spread out a bit. Ferris doesn't worry - he's in the middle of this bunch !

Six miles out he and Clark are padding along in company.

But what a change at Stamford Bridge ! ..g..... Ferris has it "all on his own". You'd never think he had just run twenty-six miles ! His sixth win in seven years !
