(1). TITLE:- FUTURE ADMIRALS.

Picture.:- In the decorated hall many parents and relatives watch the boys receive their diplomas. ....

They are young in service, and the thrill of receiving their commissions more --

--than compensates for the stiff training they have been through in the past --

--four years. There are four hundred and forty one of them going to toss their middies' caps (symbolical of yesterday giving way to the morrow). ....

If they are all good for Admirals, the top of the ladder will be crowded !
