

13420-2

(5). TITLE.:- INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW.

Picture.:- Nearly one thousand horses from all parts of the globe take part in the great show, --

--twentieth of its kind held at Olympia. Here we see "the pairs of harness horses", judging in progress.... How rarely one has the opportunity of seeing these trotting along the --

--Highway. In the juvenile class we see the youngsters, who are all under ten years old, handling their ponies in truly expert style and how proud each one looks as he passes.

I am told that the pit ponies' coats are like satin; one would hardly credit this considering they spend most of their life beneath the surface pulling tons of coal about.

These historic coaches include the original York and London rail coaches which have been lent by the Science Museum.

They got a lot of "kick" out of travel in those days - even if it was only anticipation of the stern command (Stand & Deliver) (Money or your life)