

135222

(1).

TITLE.:- SWEDISH VISITOR.

Picture.:- She's just dropped in to say "How d'ye do". ....
Her first visit was twenty years ago, for the --

2

--King's coronation review. .... The spick and span appearance of -- --the British battleships in Portsmouth Harbour, urge them to greater --

--efforts to make their vessel a model and brightness and cleanliness.

Our own magnificent "Iron Duke", lying nearby, is the last word in --

--naval efficiency - an object lesson to the boys of the Fylgia. ....

The Admiral Superintendent of the Dockyard pays a visit to the ship. .... The captain and officers of the floating nautical school receive him with due ceremony and friendliness. ...

Rear-Admiral Kitson makes a short inspection of the vessel, and then goes below, --

--I don't know what for, but I know how I treat my visitors !