TITLE.:- QUEEN OF THE ROSES.

Picture.:- It is Coronation Day for the Queen of the Roses. Her Smiling Majesty is presented to the Mayoral party by Major Cecil Taylor, Master of Ceremonies. The new queen is Miss Mabel Hollingworth, a very charming successor to the delightful little ladies who have graced the -- --floral throne in past years. She is a graceful picture of regal dignity as she makes her way to the gaily --

--decorated promenade for the coronation ceremony. Ten thousand people are there to see --

K

--this comely Yorkshire girl crowned by the Lady Mayoress of Leeds. I've often heard --

--that Scarborough has its attractions. Whoever said so, was right - it has !
