

13702-2

(2).

TITLE.:- GOLDEN STATUE.

Picture.:- Who said there was a gold shortage ? This figure is 220 feet above streetlevel. It is --

--thirty feet high and weighs over five tons.Gold-workers are busy --

--covering the statue, from head to foot, with pure gold leaf, four --

--millimetres in thickness. When they have finished they will have used --

--about forty-pounds-weight of unadulterated 24 carat gold.

The foreman inspects the work done on the mighty outstretched hand of -- --the sacred figure - this alone measures four feet from finger-tip to wrist.

An exceedingly striking picture, as it glistens in its golden glory.