TITLE:- TALLY HO !

Picture:- Every dog has his day and this is the Fox Hound's day. The elite of the hunting counties attend the show.

Here are the Duke and Duchess of Beaufort. The Duke's pack is a famous one.

The dogs are beginning to get show conscious, anxious that their ears are properly --

--set, their teeth clean before interviewing ladies of --

--quality. Colonel Fox-Colby and Major Gordon Foster, both Masters of Fox Hounds, are judging these intelligent and highly bred animals. Eighteen packs are represented, --

--the most successful being dogs drawn from the Oakley and the Cirencester Packs.

Here are the two winning dog-couples, from the Earl of Bathurst's Pack !

This is 'Goldsmith' of the Oakley Pack, the champion dog hound of the show.

He won't quite do what he's told, but --

--hi, boy ! He's a credit to his kennels.
