(8). TITLE.:- BONFIRE.

Picture.:- The whole lot weighs over thirty tons, including a hundred pianos "scrapped" by the dealers. .... Ky--

--only regret is that one particularly obnoxious piano I could mention is not amongst this lot. ....

At dusk, the Lady Mayress of Leeds ignites the pile with a long taper. .... The fire demon soon --

--takes a firm hold on the affair. He sends the "neighbours' torments" to a place --

--I expect many of them have been consigned to, by work-weary fathers wanting their "forty winks" on Sunday afternoons! ....
Thirty-thousand --

--people witness the bonfire - many of them wishing they could "repeat the dose", on Guy Fawkes night,--

--in their own back yards. .... It's all in a good cause, for it is --

--the climax to a day of fun organized in aid of the District Nurses' Homes.
