

138050-C

(1) TITLE.:- KING'S PRIZE.

Picture.:- The last rounds for the King's Prize at Bisley always excite keen -- --interest. .... That is particularly the case this year, with Sergeant Fulton --

--in the final. .... He wins for the third time, having gained the Prize --

--in 1912 and 1926. .... This chairing of the winner is an old established custom, and is as much part of the fruits of victory as the King's prize itself. ....

α Now the famous Sergeant wants a refresher. .... Note his choice - TEA ! - Oh, yes ! it really is tea, you doubting Thomases ! Good health, Sir ; May your sight --

--never grow dim! .... He's been in the final seventeen times !