(5). TITLE.:- LA BELLE DUCHESSE.

Picture. : "Our Smiling Duchess" adds to her legion of admirers during her visit, with the Duke, to the French Colonial Exhibition. On arrival Her Royal Highness is presented with a bouquet while other Annamite maidens courtsey their respects for the Royal visitors. By the way, have you noticed -- --that the Duchess is wearing one of the new-style hats which have suddenly become all the rage ?

The visitors make a comprehensive tour of the big exhibition, walking miles in doing so. They see many interesting things, --

--and people - including a couple trying to flatten the camel's hump !

Natives of the various French colonies join in giving Their Royal Highnesses a right-royal reception. This included a --

--Tam-Tam by Africans drawn up outside their very own Pavilion.

Our friends across the Channel are greatly impressed by the charm of their visitors. Two more British Ambassadors of Goodwill further strengthen the Entente Cordiale.
