

(9). TITLE.:- TAKEN FOR A RIDE.

Picture.:- The New York police held a disarmament conference with -- --the result that over five-thousand weapons came into their possession.

The next problem was how to get rid of --

--them, without a chance of them getting back where they shouldn't.

One bright boy thought that gangsters and the like wouldn't dive to the ocean bed for a few--

--guns, so it was decided to run them out and dump them into "Davy Jones' locker", a mile off shore.

Each revolver or gun represents an arrest--

--by the police. They have been busy ! Over they go.

It's a great pity they can't "shoot" --

--the owners ove board with them. Until --

--they can do something of the kind, --

--I'm afraid America won't be safe for a real crook to live in !
