

TITLE:- KING'S CUP

Picture. :- One of those mornings when bed seemed to be the most comfortable place on earth.

Just teeming down "cats and dogs" ..... Yet all the competitors were there on time for their respective starting signals ..... Last year's winner.

Miss Winifred Brown, looks fit enough, but she was unlucky .....

It took over two-and-a-half hours to send the forty competitors away ..... All the time it rained hard, but some of the spectators managed to keep dry under the accommodating wings of the aeroplanes .....

During the day the Duke and Duchess of York looked in, and up, at Heston .....

After a full day in the air, Flying Officer Edwards, brings home his Blackburn-Bluebird, first, with three minutes in hand from the next man ..... Edwards is of a very retiring disposition, and as soon as he hops out of his machine he "makes a bolt for it" ..... However, he is soon captured and has to endure the penalties of fame from the photographers.

Sir Phillip Sassoon presents the King's Cup ..... Take it, Sir, and jolly good luck, to you! ..... Worth getting wet for, wasn't it?
