

2-270851

TITLE :- COWES WEEK.

Picture :- Their Majesties put in an early appearance for Regatta Week, and their arrival is heralded by the Royal Salute from the guardship.

Aboard the Victoria and Albert, the King and Queen spend their holiday afloat during the big yachting festival ..

Her Majesty takes active interest in everything Choppy conditions do not prevent her accompanying the King

when he visits his racing yacht Britannia, and very successfully does she adapt herself to the rather cramped conditions aboard the splendid craft The racing provides Their Majesties with plenty of excitement -- for instance, see Britannia giving the also-famous Shamrock a thrilling race.

She shows a clean pair of heels to her rival, but nobody begrudges our sailor King a well merited win

And here's Astra -- Hm! But you have to be a very good sailor for this sort of thing -- and I'm not one.

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, I LEAVE YOU!