

TITLE. :- BOXING.

Picture. :- Twelve thousand people assemble in the grounds of the Crystal Palace to see the alfresco matches arranged for their benefit.

Good honest boxing characterises the bouts. .... Here, Billy Jackson, the nineteen-year-old ex-amateur is giving his opponent one of those very painful lessons in "how-to-do-it" no boxer likes to have. .... One after the other, Jackson literally knocks his opponents out of the Featherweight Competition, in a manner which delights the crowd.

Many a promoter of heavyweight championship matches would like to attract a "gate" like this ! Twelve thousand !

Another "scalp" added to young Billy Jackson's collection.... He's a master of the fistic art -- and its mostly due to his trainer, Johnnie Thomas, whom you won't blame for being proud of his young protege's prowess.