

TITLE.:- IN THE FIRING LINE.

Picture. :- High above the Strand these young ladies learn the art of shooting.

It's good for nerve control, and practice in keeping eye and hand steady.

They are all pretty good at it ! Ping !

Ha ! An "inner" - not bad !

You should do better than that, missie !

Tut ! tut ! These late nights won't do !

She agrees ! (What did she say ?)

She's determined to "nip a bit" out --

-- of that "Bull". Now, steady !

That's better ! Quite a good effort, but try again !

Now for it ! Zip !

That's just as it should be ! Dead centre !

Good work, miss !

They are coached by Archie Smith, King's Prize winner of -- 1925. He hopes --

--that one of his pupils will repeat his success some day.....
Here's seconding his hopes ! Good luck, girls !
