

TITLE. :- ROUGH STUFF.

Picture. :- Not content with the bumping they get over the bouncing billows, Naval officers seek a few more ashore :

This is called Devil's Drop -- I don't know why, but I do know that the second man is getting a drop too much in the way of fumes !

Some are comparatively lucky, but others have to be hauled over the bumps. ....

Aye, its a dirty day, Sir !

At "Slide Down" as it is called they make up a little for lost time. .... You'd almost think the leader is trying to "smoke" his way to victory !

This section of the course is "One Step Up".

It's a case of one bump and you're there, or not as the case may be. .... Number Thirteen finds that "One Step Up" is just one too many. .... Hey ! that's the wrong way ! .... OW ! So's that ! .... Number Thirteen is never anything but odd !

Of course, they come through with a smile. .... That's what we've learnt to expect -- and get, from the Navy.
