TITLE:- "BUFFS" REMEMBER.

Picture:- Every year the Buffs, in full strength, attend a service in remembrance of the members of the Regiment who made the supreme sacrifice in the World War. ....

Future "Buffs" are there in the person of boys of the Duke of York's School at Dover; while the Past is represented by ex-service men of the regiment.

The Present, of course means those fine chaps who now constitute the -- --famous force. .... As they march into the Cathedral,--

--the salute is taken by Major the Honorable J.J. Astor, --

--Member of Parliament for Dover. .... Rain simply "teemed" --

--down all through the Service - and as the Buffs marched away afterwards they all got thoroughly wet. ....

BRING UP MUSIC FOR REMAINDER OF "SHOT", and TONE DOWN OVER NEXT "SHOT, BRINGING UP ONCE MORE FOR FINALE AND FADE.
