

(2) TITLE:- ROAD & RIVER RACE.

Picture:- First, a short run to their "bikes" - and then they bowl along the highway with full knowledge that they have to do more than run and cycle to win this race.

Cyclists are not permitted on the towing path, so they "foot-slog" once more.

Keep going, lads ! We know it's hot, but there's "a cooler" coming !

Here it is ! ..... In they go, to swim the river, with the winning-post only just over on the further bank. .... So they have to run, cycle, and swim,--

--although there is a rope to give confidence to those who are not too sure --

--of themselves. .... Marcel Hoyan makes up for time lost on the road. .... While the -- --others struggle their way across --

--the tide. .... Hoyan is first to land, with only a slight lead, but --

--an inch is as good as a mile !
