

(9). TITLE.:- POLITICAL SITUATION.

Picture.:- Not since 1914 has the "Man in the Street" gathered in such force --

--in Downing Street. Everybody wanted the latest news, and this seemed to be the place to get it !

Lord Sankey, Mr. Henderson, and Mr. Thomas, paused for a moment for our benefit before entering "No.10" for the fateful conference, --

--while the police "put their backs into the job" of keeping the crowd within bounds !

Miss Margaret Bondfield, Minister of Labour, of course, was there, --

--while the Minister of War, Mr. Tom Shaw, entered the "battle area" with pipe in full blast.

Strangely enough Mr. Herbert Morrison walked ! He was Minister of Transport !

Hour after hour the crowd waited patiently --

--for Mr. Macdonald whose Cabinet resigned, and who now faces the situation supported by a --

--National Government composed of all three parties. ... Between them they'll put things right, have no fear ! Our best wishes, Sir !

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, WE LEAVE YOU !
