TITLE:- COWAL GAMES.

Picture:- A thousand papers march past ! If they'd all been playing, most people would have had just a little more Scotch than was good for them ! About three is enough for most people -- unless the other fellow is paying!..

Real he-man stuff ! In the Cumberland style !..... Mitchell takes Mclean for a spin. You'd almost think they were dancing instead of wrestling ! Ow ! Yes, I've seen that happen on a dance floor !

Scottish youngsters "trip the light fantastic" as to the manner born. These kiddies are all under thirteen years of age. When it --

--came to Tossing the Caber", our cameraman considered "discretion the better part of valour", and took a "back shot". He's had one "spell" in hospital this year !

I'm not surprised though - for here is the man who tossed it !

A grand stampede across the ground "wound up" the best Scottish show of the year.
