

218185

(10).

TITLE:- CABINET.

Picture:- We congratulate ourselves upon being able to show you these pictures of the small band of --

--loyal Britons, who, irrespective of party or personal inclinations, have put their Country first, and undertaken the -- --formidable task of re-establishing British credit by balancing the Budget. As they descend to the garden of --

--No.10.Downing Street, each one tucks a piece of white heather into his button-hole. May they have the --

--luck it means ! It looks as though every camera in London is there to "shoot" the members of --

--the National Cabinet. Front row, from left to right, Mr. Snowden.

Next to him is Mr. Stanley Baldwin, the Conservative Lord President of the Council.

Then comes the greatest "cabinet-maker" of our time, Mr. Ramsay MacDonald, the Labour Prime Minister.

Next to him is Sir Herbert Samuel, Liberal Home Secretary, and on the extreme --

--right of the front row, Lord Sankey, the Lord Chancellor. .. Behind Lord Sankey is Sir Samuel Hoare, Secretary for India, with Lord Reading, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, his neighbour. Behind the Premier, is Mr. J.H.Thomas who has lost his job as General Secretary of the N.U.R. because he joined the National Government. Next comes Mr. Neville Chamberlain, Minister of Health, and lastly Sir Phillip Cunliffe-Lister, President of the Board of Trade. Well gentlemen ! It's up to you !

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, WE LEAVE YOU !