TITLE.:- MUD LARKS.

Picture.:- You'd hardly expect them to wear their Sunday clothes for this match. They know they are to --

--wallow, (and perhaps swallow), some of merry England's coastline ! XXXX Right from the kick-off mud splashed--

--around for all the world as though "it doesn't spatter !" XXXX

They won't tolerate obstacles in the goal-month, --

--so the reclining player is seized firmly, and gently "skated" back on to the field of play. XXXX

It is not only the players who collect plenty of mud - some of the onlookers had an overdose, too !

Ouch ! XXXX Ouch ! XXXX Ouch ! XXXX

It's not only football ! XXXX It looks as though some of them are settling private differences, too !

"Mud packs" are supposed to be good for the complexion - these fellows should be quite handsome after this !
