

(7).

TITLE.:- LU NCH TIME IN LONDON.

Picture.:- In a charming garden right away from the hustle and bustle of the streets, the people of Adelaide House enjoy their short respites from work. XXXX It is high above everything, giving splendid views of the great city, sandwiching the river Thames, with Tower Bridge away in the distance. XXXX No less than -- --three bridges, Cannon Street, Southwark, and Blackfriars can be seen in the opposite direction, and the great dome of St. Paul's Cathedral peeps over the garden wall at --

--happy people enjoying a game of miniature golf on a real grass course. XXXX Visitors to --

--the Monument are the only ones who can look down on this haven for the worried !

That's London Bridge down there - with its constant stream of traffic and people, and - --

--(Chimes). XXXX Two o'clock ! Time to get back to work again ! All good things come to an end !