

(1).

TITLE.:- GOING UP.

Picture.:- It's a flying start, from nine-thousand feet up (!), with a five-thousand-foot climb--

--in the twelve-miles run ahead ! XXXX They mustn't waste time if --

--previous records are to be broken. XXXX It has been done in--

--seventeen-minutes forty-one seconds, so there's no time to--

--stop and pick daisies on the way. XXXX

Some idea of the perilous climb can be got from this "shot" taken from their goal, the summit of Pike's Peak. XXXX It looks more like an aviator's job ! XXXX

They travel fast ! XXXX Who-ooop !

Parts of the road are very near the edge--

--but they're not going over for our amusement !

Approaching the Top o'the World, with the existing record in for a good shake-up ! XXXX Charles Myers, one of--

--America's crack drivers reaches the summit in seventeen-minutes-ten-seconds, lepping over half-a-minute off the --

--previous best ! XXXX Well, he has climbed--

--high alright ! - and should go far !