(6). TITLE:- ROW, BROTHERS ! ROW!

Picture.

GUN EFFECT - 1 second from start.

They're off ! XXXX The boat-crews come from ships of many nations, which happen to be in New York on the day set for the race. XXXX Americans, Britons, Danes, Dutchmen, Germans, Norwegians and Swedes, all are here - and if that's not "international", --

--what is ? XXXX They have two miles to go - pulling against the tide !

The British and American boats do rather well in the early stages of the race, --

--but the Norwegian crew of No.2.--

--boat, with their splendid timing, gradually pull ahead of the others after a mile,--

--giving the eighty-thousand spectators the thrill of a--

--great race ! XXXX Now for the "final burst". XXXX The boys from Norway want the gold medals and prizes that go to the winners - and they've got 'em, or as good as ! XXXX Now they have got something worth while writing home about !
