

(7). TITLE.:- THE GAME OF WAR.

Picture.:- There is quite "a stir" on Salisbury Plain, for the "powers that be" --

--have ordered a little war between the units of the Southern Command,--

--just to keep the troops 'up to scratch' in the "grim game--

--of war". XXXX Machine guns are defending against an --

--infantry attack, having as its objective the destruction--

--of a couple of whippet-tanks, creating quite --

--some havoc amongst the advancing troops. XXXX They are on the edge of that wood, but a --

--determined dash soon puts the little machines out of action. XXXX After an --

--exciting day Tommy rather welcomes the "Dismiss". XXXX Only the -- --wireless men remain on duty. XXXX A life of "snarks"!

Everybody is hungry ! XXXX The officers settle down to an alfresco "dinner", but --

--Tommy doesn't care whether it is called "dinner", "supper", or just plain "grub", so long as he gets what he wants, when he wants it ! XXXX

And as a 'wind up' to a good day, Bed-time stories round the camp fire. XXXX I haven't time to repeat them to you !

AND SO, FOR THE PRESENT, I LEAVE YOU !