TITLE.:- SEARCHING THE SKIES.

Picture.:- The light brigade - with the accent on the "light". XXXX Really, they are the Post--

--Artillery Searchlight Battery, "standing to" for a test of their "dispellers of darkness".

Switch on ! ---- and a bright answer !

Their mighty beams search the skies for supposed enemy--

--aircraft. XXXX An awkward moment for the airmen !

Each unit requires eleven men to handle it !
None of--

--then can say their's is a "dull" job !

They may have these great contrivances to move about, but wherever they--

--go - they travel "light". Ha, ha ! XXX The man should be--

--happy - they are always "beaming". (You really must forgive me, the light has got to my head !)

Airmen don't like night-lights ! XXXX Switch off !
