

(7). TITLE.:- GANDHI IN LANCASHIRE.

Picture.:- Mr. Gandhi is like the man from Missouri - he believes what he sees ! XXXX So he goes to Lancashire to obtain first-hand knowledge of the effects-- --of the Indian boycott, on the cotton industry in this--

--country. XXXX At Darwen he first visits the Town Hall,--

--and then, one of the biggest mills in Lancashire. XXXX Here he is greeted by the Directors. XXXX He is much moved by his reception, and expresses his-- --surprise that the people could raise a smile for him, considering, as he himself said, he is partly responsible for the --

--idle mills! XXXX But they are nothing if not "sportsmen" in Lancashire - as you can see !

Whatever may have been Mr. Gandhi's fears about his reception in the cotton district, - he cannot fail to realize that Lancashire has no personal feeling against-- --him. Well, Mr. Gandhi, you've got something to think about !
