TITLE.:- 500 MILES RACE.

Picture.:- At 10.30 a Midget takes the track. XXXX Twenty-five minutes later--

-- K----- a batch--

--goes off - and the race is on ! XXXX Whatever its handicap, each car has to do the full 500-miles. XXXX Phew ! Look at that little 'un ! XXXX She's going 'some' ! XXXX

Another lot are away like greyhounds "off the leash". XXXX
Only one of them requires a little extra persuasion. XXXX
Altogether there--

--are forty cars in the race. The spectators get their money's worth, for the competitors have to do--

--a hundred-and-eighty-one laps ! So there's no time for anyone--

--to take a "breather". XXXX The British cars put up a grand--

--showing. XXXX As the end approaches, it is obvious that, barring accidents, Woolf Barnato's Bentley will win !

And so it turns out ! XXXX It is --

--a severe test. Jack Dunfee and Cyril Paul are to be congratulated on coming through with flying colours !
