TITLE.:- YOUNGEST PILOT.

Picture.:- Most boys of eleven only dream about flying, --

--but Jack's Mother says it's alright, so--

--he is going up "on his own". XXXX A special cushioned seat is installed so that he can reach the controls - and then, all is ready ! XXXX

He's got plenty of pluck for a young 'un !

"Let her go !" he orders. XXXX "So long, Mother !", and the youngest pilot goes off on his first solo flight. XXXX He handles the machine like a --

--veteran. XXXX A perfect takeoff, too ! XXXX Not bad for a schoolboy, eh ?

He makes a fifteen-minute flip before coming to earth again. XXXX A --

--beautiful landing without a bump ! XXXX The funny thing about it is, that Jack doesn't think--

--anything of it ! XXXXX He'll be hopping the Atlantic--

--some day. XXXX But take my tip, and do it in a ship, Jack boy !
