TITLE.:- JAPAN SHOWS THE WAY.

Picture.:- School is over for the day, and the youngsters--
--troop out, actually bowing to teacher on the way ! XXXX
I can't imagine--

--our kids doing that ! XXXX But there, they still respect their elders, in --

--Japan ! XXXX There have been too many street accidents lately, so the--

--senior boys act as traffic police--

--for the young 'uns - and do the job--

--very well, too ! XXXX The "juniors" obey--

--the signals of the cops, absolutely !

Just as well they do, for if they're--

--reported they are punished. XXXX And that might--

--mean "writing a hundred lines !"

Now ! Have you ever seen one line in Japanese ?
