--choice. XXXX Amongst the earlier guests to arrive are the Duke and Duchess of York and little Princess Elizabeth, who waves to the assembled crowd.

CROWD.

She and her parents make a happy family picture as they walk between the lines of guardsmen to the church. XXXX

The bevy of very charming bridesmaids are a delight to the privileged few assembled in-- --the old churchyard. XXXX They receive their bouquets on the way - an effective means of preserving them from being crushed in the car. XXXX Within a few minutes the cheers of the -- --crowd herald the arrival of Her Majesty the Queen - the Bride's aunt.

We are happy to be able to present these pictures of the bridal party at Brantridge Park;--
--particularly as they are of the first occasion on which our little Princess has performed a public duty. XXXX

She's as proud as Punch at being selected to pose for this "shot". XXXXX By the way,--

--she'll be playing "lead" in a --

--story like this, some day! But it's too early to start guessing!

I'm sure you'll all join in wishing Captain and Lady May Abel Smith, "long life and happiness".
